Respondent No.1 namely Muhammad Siddique present in person

ORDER

ZULFIQAR AHMAD KHAN, J;- Counsel for the applicant states that on account of perpetual delay resulting from the absence of the Counsel for the respondent No.1, who is even today called absent as such without any intimation, whilst respondent No.1 Muhammad Siddique is present in person and requests for adjournment, such delays being misuse and abuse of process of law, now his client has chosen not to press the instant Civil Revision Application and to concede to the Judgment of the Appellate Court where the said Court was pleased to remand the matter back to the trial Court with direction to decide the matter afresh on merits after hearing both the parties, strictly in accordance with the law.

In these circumstances, this Civil Revision Application is disposed of as not pressed along with the listed application, with direction to the trial Court to rehear the matter in terms of the Appellate Court's judgment upon the matter having been remanded to the latter, strictly on merits after hearing both the parties and decide the same within a period of 60 (sixty) days in accordance with the law.
