along with petitioner
Mr. Ghulam Abbas Kubar, Assistant Advocate General

After arguing the matter to some extent where it surfaces that infact the Petitioner at moment is not eligible for pensionary benefits as such benefit has been denied to him already by the order dated 08.01.2020, available at page No.83, against which orders he has preferred an appeal before the Chief Secretary available at page No.85, which appeal is still pending as of 2020. However, in the meanwhile in similar footings in the case of Abdul Karim Kumbar who was also nominated in FIRs and he acquitted thereafter by the concerned Courts of law, and also in the circumstances where SASO was disbanded during the intervening period, penisoary benefits were restored upon the said Abdul Karim Kumbar. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that present petition may be restricted to extent that the Chief Secretary be given directions to decide the appeal of petitioner in accordance with law, and keeping in mind precedents particularly orders passed in case of Abdul Karim Kumbar, let the appeal be decided through a speaking order. In case favavourable order is issued against petitioner, then probably we are of the view that petitioner may approach this Court again for pensionary benefits.

In the light of above circumstances, present petition stands disposed of by directing Chief Secretary to decide the appeal of petitioner in accordance with law preferably within two months in the light of precedents brought to his attention. In the meanwhile, office is directed to prepare a copy of this complete file to be handed out to the Learned AAG under cover along with copy of this order for compliance.
