After hearing the arguments of learned counsel at some length both the learned counsel agreed that in view of the judgment passed in the case of Muhammad Bashir versus Station House Officer, Okara Cantt and others PLD 2007 Supreme Court 539, let the applicant appear before the concerned Station House Officer and record his statement and if a cognizable offence is made out, only then the concerned Station House Officer act in accordance with the law as far as lodging of the FIR is concerned. Needless to mention that in case if an FIR is registered and it turns out to be false after investigation, the consequences to follow as provided under the law.
