Mr. Amanullah Luhur Baloch, advocate for applicants.

By this criminal miscellaneous application, applicants have impugned the order dated 12.12.2017, passed in Crl. Misc. Application No.451/2017, whereby the 1st Additional Sessions Judge, Kandhkot/ex-Officio Justice of Peace, while disposing of the application of respondent No.3 directed him to appear before the SHO/duty officer concerned, who shall act according to law as per the Medicolegal Certificate.

Learned Counsel for the applicants states that the applicant No.2 on the relevant date and time was not present at the place of occurrence and the respondent No.3 by making false assertions in his application filed under Section 22-A & B, Cr.P.C has obtained the impugned order.

Be that as it may, it is the duty of the incharge of police station that in case any person appears before him and narrates the facts making out any cognizable offence, to incorporate the same in 154, Cr.P.C Register. So far the contention of Counsel for the applicants is concerned, it is at the first stage matter of investigation and then of trial to consider the contention of the applicant No.2 whether on the relevant date and time he was present at the occurrence or not.

The impugned order does not suffer from any illegality or irregularity requiring any interference of this Court, this criminal miscellaneous application being devoid of any legal merit is dismissed in limine, accordingly, along with listed applications.
