

ORDER SHEET
IN THE HIGH COURT OF SINDH, KARACHI

R.A. No.79 of 2016

Date: Order with signature of Judge

1. For orders on CMA 6642/16
2. For hearing of main case.

Dated: 13.02.2018

Mr. Naveed Ali for applicant.

Learned counsel at the conclusion of his arguments submits that since applicant claims that he has been terminated without any justification or lawful cause he may be allowed to pursue his remedy for recovery of damages. Accordingly, insofar as the concurrent findings of two Courts below are concerned, no indulgence is required. However in case the applicant intends to pursue his remedy for recovery of damages on the alleged cause of unlawful termination, he does not require any permission from this Court and may pursue his remedy as deem fit and proper which shall be dealt with in accordance with law. Any findings here, in pursuit of the remedy of recovery of damages may not come in the way and such lis, if any availed by the applicant, be disposed of on its own merits, including point of maintainability, if arise.

The revision application is dismissed along with listed application.
