The respondent No.4 has brought the custody of minor/infant and has handed over the minor to the petitioner/mother. He submits that he has neither taken away the child forcibly nor he coerced her for the custody. In fact it is stated that mother herself gave its custody to the father and now since she sought custody of the child, he has no objection to provide. Order accordingly. However petitioner may arrange meeting of the respondent No.4 with the child fortnightly on Saturday's in the office of the Nazir for one hour on payment of Rs.500/- as transportation charges to the petitioner.
