4. For orders on CMA 2768/18

Dated: 28.03.2018

Mr. Haider Waheed a/w Mr. Sufiyan Zaman for petitioner.

The subject matter of this petition, as apparent from the contention of learned counsel for petitioner, is to obtain some injunctive order in respect of certain cheques, which are lying with respondent No.4. It is the case of the petitioner that there is no fiscal obligation on him (petitioner) to respond to those cheques which are in possession of respondent No.4 who is using the same as a tool to twist the arm of petitioner.

I have heard the learned counsel. Such controversy could hardly be entertained in a petition filed under article 199 of the Constitution of Pakistan under the umbrella of harassment. Petitioner has remedy to avail redress of grievance in a forum having jurisdiction in this regard and perhaps prima facie the jurisdiction of Civil Court cannot be ignored. The petition as such is dismissed along with listed applications. The petitioner however may avail the remedy as he deem fit and proper in the circumstances of the case.
