Dated: 01.02.2018

Mr. Patras Piyara for petitioners.

-.-.-

Counsel submits that though earlier an FIR has been lodged but subsequent complaints of the petitioners have not been materialized. When enquired as to whether on account of subsequent unlawful action any application before the concerned District & Sessions Judge was filed, he has denied. He submits that petitioners have not filed any application where challan has been produced. This petition has no substance as no harassment is claimed to have been caused by the official respondents. Insofar as the private respondents are concerned, the petitioners may take action and move appropriate application before the forum having jurisdiction. The petition is accordingly dismissed along with listed applications.
