Dated: 08.09.2015

M/s. Dr. Muhammad Farogh Naseem and Owais Ali Shah for plaintiffs.

The subject suits have been dismissed vide judgment announced today. Both the learned counsel submit that the plaintiffs in their respective suits intend to exercise their right of appeal and since there was interim order prevailing before passing the judgment they pray that let such status may be maintained so that they may prefer the appeal within the shortest possible time. In the circumstances, let no coercive exercise for recovery of the amount in the subject suits shall take place for five working days. This order however shall cease to exist on expiry of such period. Both the learned counsel also request that the office may be directed to prepare the decree expeditiously. Order accordingly.
