Mr. Abdul Hafeez Jagirani, advocate for petitioner

There are serious allegations against private respondent No.5, who is claimed to be real uncle of petitioners 2 and 3, the minor daughters of petitioner No.1 and respondent No.4. Such allegations may require a detailed probe which cannot be inquired in these proceedings. The remedy available to the petitioners is that either they may exhaust it by filing a private complaint or an application before the concerned District & Sessions Judge in case the concerned SHO refused to lodge an FIR in respect of the allegations raised in the petition. However, insofar as the protection is concerned, Mr. Abdul Jaleel Zubedi, learned A.A.G., who is in attendance, waives notice of this petition and has conceded to the extent that the official respondents shall provide protection to the life and liberty. The petition is disposed of and the petitioners are at liberty to avail their remedy in accordance with law.
