On 28.10.2016, this bail application was adjourned due to illness of learned counsel for the applicants with note of caution that on the next date of hearing the applicants shall proceed with the matter but again on 04.11.2016 when this matter was taken up, the counsel for applicants made a request for adjournment, which was granted as a last and final chance despite opposition to it by the counsel for complainant. Today, counsel for applicants is present, but he has again made a request for adjournment that has been declined and he has been directed to proceed, but he has refused to proceed with the matter. In the circumstances, this bail application is dismissed in non prosecution.
