ORDER

Adnan-ul-Karim Memon, J: The petitioner requests that the court order the respondents to pay her the PHD allowance retroactively from her appointment date.

2. Petitioner holding a verified PhD in Pharmacology from the University of Malaya (Annexures B, B-1, B-9), has been denied her PhD allowance since her appointment in August 2023, despite multiple requests (Annexures C, C-1, C-2). Other SMBBU Larkana employees receive this allowance (Annexures D, D-1, D-2, D-3). Even with a recommendation from Respondent 3 (Annexure E), her case remains unresolved. Having exhausted other options, the petitioner seeks a court order directing the respondents to grant her the PhD allowance retroactively from her appointment date.

3. Respondents 1-4 state that the University has now approved the petitioner's PhD allowance. (Annexure provided).

4. As the respondents (1-4) have indicated that they have approved the petitioner's PhD allowance, as such, the purpose of this petition is fulfilled, and it is hereby concluded. However, the outcome of this matter remains contingent upon the decision of the university's syndicate, as previously directed by this court in Constitutional Petition No. 351 of 2024.

5. This petition stands disposed of in the aforesaid terms.
