Before:
Mr. Justice Muhammad Saleem Jessar
Mr. Justice Riazat Ali Sahar

Petitioner : Lakhmir alias Babro Kalhoro through Mr. Riaz Ali Shaikh, Advocate.

The Respondents: The State and Province of Sindh through M/s Syed Sardar Ali Shah Rizvi, Additional P.G and Agha Athar Hussain Pathan, Assistant A.G a/w Inspector Niaz Ali of P.S, Bhiria City.

Date of Hearing : 15-07-2025
Date of Decision : 15-07-2025

O R D E R

RIAZAT ALI SAHAR, J. By way of this petition, petitioner Lakhmir alias Babro Kalhoro seeks his admission on post-arrest bail in Crime No.81 of 2025, registered at Police Station Bhiria City, District Naushahro Feroze for offence punishable under Section 9(1), Sr. No.3(c) of the Sindh Control of Narcotic Substances Act, 2024 ("the Act"), for allegedly possessing 1200 grams of Charas.

2. Since facts of the prosecution case are already mentioned in the FIR as well as in the memo of petition; therefore, there is no need to reproduce the same. Reliance is placed on the case of Muhammad Shakeel v. The State & others (PLD 2014 SC 458).

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner argued that the petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated in this case by the police and recovery of contraband material has been foisted upon him. He further contended that the recovery so affected from the petitioner i.e. 1200 grams of charas is the meager quantity besides the punishment for offence as provided under the Act is "may extend to 14 years and not less than 09 years," hence, submits when the statue provides two punishments, then lesser one may be considered at bail stage. He further argued that by virtue of Section 17(2) of the Act (as amended), the police official was under obligation to record video of recovery proceedings but he failed; even by virtue of Section 17 of the Act, the ASI, in this case, was not competent to seize the narcotics or make arrest of the accused without warrant or investigate the case. He, therefore, submits that case against the petitioner requires further enquiry; hence, by granting this petition, the petitioner may be directed to be released on bail.

4. Learned Law Officers, after going through Section 17 of the Act and its provisions, submit that contraband recovered from the petitioner is 1200 grams of charas and punishment provided for the same is from 09 to 14 years as per the Act. They, however, do not oppose the petition for grant of bail.

5. We have heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as law officers and have gone through the material made available before us on record.

6. In view of the express bar contained in Section 35(1) of the Sindh Control of Narcotics Substances Act, 2024, the petitioner is left without any efficacious remedy before the ordinary criminal forums. Where a statutory prohibition effectively forecloses access to bail, the constitutional jurisdiction of this Court under Article 199 may be invoked to safeguard the petitioner's fundamental right to liberty, as enshrined in Articles 9 and 14 of the Constitution. For the sake of convenience section 35(1) of the Act, 2024 is reproduced as under:-

“Notwithstanding anything contained in section 496 and 497 of the Code, the bail shall not be granted to an accused person charged with an offence under this Act”.

Therefore, in view of the exceptional nature of the statutory restriction and the absence of any effective legal remedy, this petition is held to be maintainable. Reliance is placed on the judgment of the Honourable Supreme Court in case of Khan Asfandiyar Wali v. Federation of Pakistan (PLD 2001 SC 607).

7. Allegedly, the petitioner has been nominated in the FIR, and recovery of 1200 grams of contraband substance, viz. Charas, is shown to have been effected from his possession. However, the punishment provided by law for the said offence is the imprisonment which may extend to fourteen years but it shall not be less than nine years and it is settled that when the statute provides two punishments, then lesser one is to be considered at bail stage. Hence, the alleged offence with which the petitioner is charged does not fall within the ambit of prohibitory clause of Section 497 Cr.P.C, thus making bail the rule and jail the exception.

8. Furthermore, the non-association of private mashirs in such circumstances undermines the credibility of the prosecution case. Additionally, no video recording or photographic evidence of the recovery proceedings has been placed on record, despite the availability of technology and the statutory expectation of transparency under such circumstances. Reliance is placed on the cases of Muhammad Abid Hussain v. The State (2025 SCMR 721) and Zahid Sarfaraz Gill v. The State (2024 SCMR 934). It is a well-entrenched principle that in cases hinging solely on police testimony, the benefit of doubt must be afforded to the accused, even at the bail stage. Reliance is placed on the case of Muhammad Arshad v. The State (2022 SCMR 1555).

9. In the circumstances and in view of above legal as well as factual position of record the petitioner has succeeded to make out a good prima facie case for grant of bail. The case of petitioner is purely covered by Section 497(2) Cr.P.C. Accordingly, instant Petition was allowed by our short order dated 15.07.2025, whereby the petitioner Lakhmir alias Babro Kalhoro was ordered to be released on bail subject to his furnishing solvent surety in the sum of Rs.50,000/- (Fifty Thousand) and P.R bond in the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court / Judicial Magistrate-II, Bhiria. These are the reasons in support of our above short order.

10. Needless to mention here that the observations recorded hereinabove are tentative in nature and shall not, in any manner, prejudice or influence the trial Court during the adjudication of the case.

11. Before parting with this order, it has been observed that in a series of cases, the certified copies of FIRs are neither legible nor readable, which hampers judicial proceedings and causes serious inconvenience. Therefore, the learned Sessions Judges of Sukkur, Khairpur, Ghotki, and Naushahro Feroze are directed to ensure that, in case the original copy of the FIR is not legible, a certified copy—either handwritten or computerized—must be provided to the parties. In this regard, the Inspector General of Police, Sindh is also directed to issue necessary instructions to all Station House Officers (SHOs) to ensure that, along with the original FIR, its computerized copy is also transmitted to the competent Courts of law having jurisdiction.

Let a copy of this order be communicated to all concerned through FAX for information and strict compliance.
