22.10.2025.
Mr.Abid Hussain Qadri, Advocate for the petitioner.

At the very outset, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is the lawful owner of agricultural land comprising Survey Nos. 505, 504, 501, 785, 784, and 786, measuring 15-15 acres, situated in Deh Nar, Taluka Tangwani, District Kashmore @ Kandhkot, which stands mutated in his name vide Entry No. 131 of Deh Form VII-B dated 13.03.1993. He further submits that the petitioner also owns land bearing Survey Nos. 428 (09-06), 429 (04-09), 430 (03-21), 431 (07-10), and 486 (01-13) acres, mutated in his favour vide Entry No. 111 of Deh Form VII-A dated 31.12.1984, as well as land comprising Survey Nos. 783 (01-17), 500 (04-17), and 509 (03-11) acres, all situated in the same Deh and Taluka.Learned counsel contends that the petitioner approached respondents No. 2 and 3 and submitted the relevant documentary record for redressal of his grievance. However, despite repeated assurances, no action was taken. Upon obtaining certified copies of the relevant record, the petitioner discovered that fictitious and fraudulent entries had been incorporated into the Record of Rights. He further states that the petitioner submitted an application before respondent No. 2 under the provisions of the Sindh Land Revenue Act for cancellation of the said entries, but no proceedings have been initiated in accordance with law.

Mr. Liaquat Ali Shar, learned Additional Advocate General, who is present in Court in connection with other matters, waives notice and submits that any application filed by the petitioner before respondent No. 2 shall be decided strictly in accordance with law.

In view of the above statement made by the learned Additional Advocate General, learned counsel for the petitioner does not press the petition and seeks its disposal in terms thereof.

Accordingly, this petition stands disposed of, with a direction to respondent No. 2 that, in the event any application is filed by the petitioner, the same shall be decided strictly in accordance with law, after providing an opportunity of hearing to all concerned, within a period of thirty (30) days from the date of receipt of such application.

Let a copy of this order be transmitted to the learned Additional Advocate General and respondent No. 2 for compliance.
