Directions

2. For orders on Maintainability

18.12.2017.

Miss Rubina Dhamrah, ADPP for the State.

Petitioner is present in person however, his Counsel is called absent. In compliance of earlier orders, the respondents No.1, 3, 4 and 5 are present and file statements to the effect that the parties are entangled in civil litigation over landed property and they have no nexus or concern with their dispute however, neither they have harassed nor will harass him and will provide legal protection to him as and when he may approach to them.

Private respondent No.7 and 9 are present and state that they are the owners of agricultural land and petitioner has no nexus whatever he claims. As far as harassment is concerned, neither they have harassed him nor will harass him in future.

It appears that either the petitioner has lost his interest or the purpose for which instant petition was filed has been served, therefore, he and his counsel have chosen to remain absent.

Learned ADPP for the State submits that she will also direct the official respondents to act and behave in accordance with law.

In the circumstances and in view of the statements filed by official respondents as well as undertaking advanced by private respondents, instant petition has achieved its purpose which is accordingly disposed of. The official respondents are directed not to become instrumental at the behest of any of the party and act strictly according to law.
