Mrs. Seema Abbasi, Advocate for the petitioners.

.....

1. Urgent application is granted.
2. Office objection be complied within ten days.
3. Exemption is granted subject to all just exceptions.
4. The petitioners are in attendance. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners being adult and sui juris have entered into nikah without the consent of parents, therefore, their lives are on stack. She further submits that petitioner No.1, by entering into nikhah has committed no offence, she belongs to Quetta city (Baloach community), where such act, like the petitioners have done, is not permissible, therefore, she submits that the official respondents be directed to provide legal protection to the couple, seeks disposal of the petition.

The petitioner No.1 present has been heard, she states that she being adult has left the house of her parents according to her own choice and none else including the petitioner No.2, has abducted her or enticed away her for seducing the illegal intercourse or otherwise ill moral activities. She being adult and sui juris knows all the ups and downs of her life and if her parents may file any criminal case against her or against the petitioner No.2, same shall be presumed false one and she be provided legal protection.

Accordingly in view of the statement of the petitioner No.1, this petition has served its purpose which is disposed of. Official respondents are hereby directed to provide protection to the petitioners and ensure their safety.

Judge
