After hearing the matter at some length looking into the controversy we have called upon the petitioner present in court as to whether the secondar, absence of whom was the reason in the impugned order, can be made available by him to be present before this Court, to which no positive response came forth. Having confronted with the said situation learned counsel for the petitioner required that the petition be disposed of as not pressed. Order accordingly. Matter stands disposed of as not pressed.
