The statements/comments filed on behalf of Respondents No.10 to 13 are taken on record.

The case of the petitioner is that on 06.02.2026, at about 08:00 a.m., he left his house for work. Upon returning at about 08:30 p.m., he found that his wife, Mst. Fiza Bibi (alleged abductee), and his two minor children, namely Umm-e-Farwa, aged about three years, and Safer Hussain, aged about two years, were not present in the house.
Consequently, he lodged FIR No.178 of 2026 at Police Station Korangi Industrial Area, District Korangi, Karachi, for offences punishable under Section 496-A PPC read with Section 3(1) of the Prevention of Trafficking in Persons Act, 2018.

We have noticed that where an FIR has already been registered in respect of an alleged cognizable offence, it is the exclusive domain of the Investigation Officer to conduct a fair, proper and impartial investigation in accordance with law and to make efforts for recovery of the alleged abductee(s). The investigation is thereafter subject to the supervisory jurisdiction of the concerned Magistrate, while any further proceedings fall within the domain of the competent trial Court.

This Court, in exercise of its constitutional jurisdiction, cannot assume the role of the investigating agency or interfere with the investigation process. However, the petitioner shall be at liberty to avail himself of the remedies available under the law before the competent forum for redressal of his grievance, particularly as the matter pertains to Police Station Korangi Industrial Area, Karachi.

Accordingly, the instant petition is dismissed in the above terms.
