Mr. Aijaz Ahmed Supra, Advocate for the Applicant
Mr. Imran Mobeen Khan, APG along with SI Ghulam Asghar and SIP
Jamaluddin Shar of P.S. Mirwah

A statement has been filed by SSP Khairpur Mirs, the same is taken on record. Process Server returned the process duly served upon Respondent No.4.

Mr. Ishfaq Hussain Laghari, advocate files Vakalatnama on behalf of Respondent No.4, which is taken on record, and claims copy of memo of application along with its annexures which has been provided to him.

Upon perusal of the impugned order, which appears to pertain to the dishonour of a cheque, it is observed that the impugned order neither refers to the cheque alleged to have been dishonoured nor sets out the material facts leading to the impugned decision except for a reliance on a judgment of Supreme Court without any context of the facts of that particular case law and without any application of that case to the facts and material applicable to the case in hand.

In the circumstances and not to deny the right of appeal to the aggrieved party, this matter is remanded to the concerned Ex-Officio Justice of Peace, Mirwah to rehear the matter afresh and articulate his reasons for the decision.

This Cr. Misc. Application stands disposed of in the above terms.
