Mr. M. Khalil Dogar, advocate for the applicant.

This reference is pending since 2013 without any progress. Time and again adjournments have been sought. Today the learned counsel presses questions No.1, 2 & 3.

Respectfully, questions No.1 & 2 squarely seek re-adjudication of evidence and learned counsel has not been able to demonstrate that the same is amenable for adjudication in reference jurisdiction in the present facts and circumstances.

Question No.3 impugns the action condoning of delay by the learned Tribunal. There is no cavil to the jurisdiction of the learned Tribunal to exercise such powers and nothing has been demonstrated to suggest that such exercise was anything but in accordance with law. Therefore, no questions of law have been articulated before this Court in this reference pending since 2013. As consequence thereof, the reference application is dismissed.

A copy of this decision may also be sent under the seal of this Court and the signature of the Registrar to the learned Customs Appellate Tribunal, as required per section 196(5) of the Customs Act, 1969.
