RIAZAT ALI SAHAR J.- The applicant has impugned the order dated 10.03.2026, passed by the learned IV-Additional Sessions Judge / Ex-Officio Justice of Peace, Hyderabad, whereby her application under Sections 22-A & B Cr.P.C., seeking directions for registration of an FIR against the proposed accused, was dismissed.

Learned counsel for the applicant contended that on 04.03.2026, the proposed accused, along with 14 to 15 unknown police officials, forcibly entered the applicant's premises, removed household articles, and dispossessed her unlawfully. It is further contended that upon refusal by the SHO, P.S. Husri, to register the FIR, the applicant approached the learned Ex-Officio Justice of Peace for redress.

Conversely, learned Deputy Prosecutor General supported the impugned order and submitted that the same does not call for any interference by this Court.

I have heard the learned counsel for the parties and perused the available record. The record reflects that proposed accused No.3, namely the SHO, P.S. Husri, has filed a detailed statement along with the criminal record of the applicant and her husband. It is a settled proposition of law that the extraordinary jurisdiction of this Court is not to be exercised to shield alleged criminal activities or to impede a lawful investigation.

The sequence of events, coupled with the criminal antecedents attributed to the applicant and her husband, prima facie suggests that the instant proceedings have been initiated with unclean hands and for ulterior motives. It has consistently been held by the superior Courts that where proceedings are initiated as a counter-blast, aimed at exerting pressure upon law enforcement agencies, such applications are liable to be dismissed.

In the circumstances, the learned Ex-Officio Justice of Peace has rightly declined to issue directions for registration of FIR. No illegality or infirmity has been pointed out in the impugned order warranting interference by this Court. Accordingly, the instant Criminal Miscellaneous Application is dismissed, being devoid of merit.
