ORDER

The applicant is seeking pre-arrest bail in F.I.R No.31/2026 for offence under section 489-F P.P.C of PS Old Mirpur. His earlier bail plea has been declined by the trial Court vide order dated 31.08.2026.

Learned counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant is ready to pay an amount of Rs.10,00,000/- to the complainant in installments. He has also filed statement wherein he has undertaken to pay the said amount and in this regard, has handed over five cheques bearing Nos.00000407, 00000409, 00000410, 00000411 and 00000408 each amounting to Rs.2,00,000/- to the complainant. The applicant has further undertaken before the Court that all five cheques, each for Rs.2,00,000/-, shall be honoured and encashed upon presentation. Upon encashment of all five cheques and receipt by the complainant of the entire amount of Rs.10,00,000/-, the monetary claim between the parties shall stand settled. Any consequential proceedings shall, however, be dealt with in accordance with law.

Learned counsel for the complainant states that the complainant has received all the aforesaid five cheques, therefore, he has no objection to the grant of bail.

Learned D.P.G has also raised no objection.

In view of the above, the instant bail application is allowed and the interim pre-arrest bail earlier granted to the applicant vide order dated 10.09.2026 is hereby confirmed on the same terms and conditions and on the surety already furnished by him. However, in the event that the applicant is found misusing the concession granted by this order, the learned Trial Court shall be at liberty to recall the bail of the applicant and proceed in accordance with law.

The observations made above are tentative in nature and shall not prejudice the case of either party at trial. The learned trial Court shall decide the case independently, on the basis of the evidence brought before it.

The application stands disposed of accordingly.
