Perusal of the order dated 30.04.2026, passed by the learned Additional Sessions Judge-I, Mirpurkhas, in Criminal Bail Application No.427 of 2026, reflects that the same does not adequately discuss the material available on record or the relevant considerations governing the grant or refusal of bail. The impugned order, therefore, lacks proper reasoning and cannot be regarded as a speaking order.

Accordingly, the impugned order dated 30.04.2026 is hereby set aside and the matter is remanded to the learned District & Sessions Judge, Mirpurkhas, who shall either hear and decide the bail application himself or entrust the same to any other learned Additional Sessions Judge, Mirpurkhas, for decision afresh, strictly in accordance with law.

The Court concerned shall pass a reasoned and speaking order after providing due opportunity of hearing to the parties and taking into consideration all relevant aspects of the case, including the material collected during investigation, the respective roles attributed to the accused, and the rule of consistency, if attracted. The exercise shall be completed preferably within fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of this order, without being influenced by any observation contained herein.

The instant Criminal Bail Application stands disposed of in the above terms.
