ADNAN-UL-KARIM MEMON J:- The petitioner, Mst. Suraiya, has filed this petition under Article 199 of the Constitution seeking recovery and production of her missing husband, Ahsan Ali Jokhio, who has been missing since 09.07.2026. Her application under Section 491 Cr.P.C. was dismissed on 10.07.2026 by the learned Additional Sessions Judge-V/MCTC, Shaheed Benazirabad.

2. Pursuant to this Court's order dated 13.10.2026, SHO P.S. Qazi Ahmed appeared and filed comments stating that the alleged detainee has a criminal record and is a proclaimed offender in various cases, and that this is a case of self-disappearance.

3. Learned AAG, also submits that the petitioner's husband, Ahsan Jokhio, is involved in several criminal cases arising out of a tribal dispute, including allegations of robbery, trespass, threats and illegal occupation of property. It is further submitted that an earlier FIR lodged by him was disposed of in B-Class due to lack of incriminating evidence. The AAG contends that the present petition is intended to exert pressure upon the local police and that the petitioner has not approached this Court with clean hands. Accordingly, dismissal of the petition, being devoid of merit, is prayed for.

4. In view of the above, the SSP concerned is directed to take pain to produce him before the competent court having jurisdiction within three weeks if he has a criminal record and has been declared a proclaimed offender by the competent court of law.

5. Without touching the merits of the case, this petition stands disposed of accordingly.

A copy of this order be communicated to the SSP concerned for compliance.
