Federation of Pakistan : By Mr. Ghulam Abbas Sangi, Assistant
Attorney General.

Govt. of Sindh : By Mr. Rafique Ahmed Dahri, Additional Advocate General.

Respondent/NADRA : By Mr. Habib-ur-Rehman, Advocate.

Date of Hearing : 20.10.2026

Date of Decision : 20.10.2026.

O R D E R

ADNAN-UL-KARIM MEMON J:- The petitioners challenged the blockage of their CNICs and sought directions for their restoration, unsealing of their bank accounts, and withdrawal of Assistant Commissioner’s letter to NADRA.

2. As no documentary proof of the alleged blockage was produced, learned counsel for NADRA submitted that the petitioners should appear before the Assistant Director, NADRA, Zonal Office, Unit No. 6, Latifabad, Hyderabad, with original documents, including their parents’ family record, for verification under the revised Revocation Policy 5.0.0 and applicable SOPs.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioners agreed to the proposed course.
4. Without touching the merits of the case, the petition is disposed of with directions to the petitioners to approach the concerned NADRA office for their cases to be processed in accordance with law within two weeks.
