

ORDER SHEET
THE HIGH COURT OF SINDH, CIRCUIT COURT HYDERABAD
Crl. Misc: Application No.S-591 of 2025

DATE	ORDER WITH SIGNATURE OF JUDGE(S)
	1. For orders on office objection (s) 2. For orders on exemption application 3. For hearing of main case 4. For orders on stay application

23.10.2026

None present on behalf of the applicant and no intimation has been received. The record shows that instant application was presented on 28.08.2025, since then none have appeared on behalf of the applicant to pursue the lis. However, I have perused the impugned order dated 26.08.2025, passed by the learned Sessions Judge/Ex-Officio Justice of Peace, Hyderabad, who while disposing of the Crl. Misc: application under Section 22-A(6)(i) Cr.P.C has held as follows:

“After hearing arguments of learned counsel for an applicant and DDPP for the State, I have perused the record. The perusal of the contents of an application and reports submitted by the SP (complaint cell), Hyderabad and the in-charge CP Airport Latifabad, Hyderabad reveal that allegations leveled by an applicant against proposed accused are serious in nature and supported by the Medical certificate, Therefore, the In-charge CP Airport Latifabad, Hyderabad is directed to record the statement of an applicant and if on perusal of statement, a cognizable offence is made out, then the same be incorporated in the book U/S 154 Cr.P.C, however, if allegations are proved to be false/wrong, then the SHO is directed to initiate proceedings U/S 182 Cr.P.C against an applicant. With these observations an application in hand stands disposed of.”

Learned Justice of Peace, after calling for reports and considering the medical certificate, merely directed the police to record the statement and to enter it in the book under section 154 Cr.P.C. only if a cognizable offence was disclosed, without expressing any view on the merits of the allegations. Such a direction falls squarely within section 22-A(6)(i) Cr.P.C. and prejudices no one, as the truth or otherwise of the allegations is a matter for investigation.

No illegality or jurisdictional defect has been pointed out warranting interference under section 561-A Cr.P.C.

For the forgoing reasons, the instant Crl. Misc: Application is, therefore, dismissed in limine along with the listed application (s).
