For hearing of bail application

ORDER

MUHAMMAD IQBAL KALHORO J: Learned defence counsel submits that he has filed 265-K Cr.P.C. application for acquittal of the accused on the ground that the witnesses were not appearing. He, however, undertakes if the witnesses appear before the trial Court, he will not press the application enabling the trial Court to proceed with the trial unhindered by any impediment.

We have heard the parties at some length and dispose of the application with consent with strict direction to the I.O., present in the court, to appear before the trial court along with the remaining witnesses for evidence, and with the directions to the trial court to examine all the witnesses without fail, and shall not grant adjournment to any party. The case in all shall be concluded in three months with compliance report through MIT-II.

3. The Cr. Bail Application stands disposed of.
