MUHAMMAD JAFFER RAZA, J:- Through instant petition, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks protective/transitory bail for the petitioner as he is residing in the United States of America and is required in Criminal Complaint No.1 of 2023 pending adjudication before the learned Banking Court No.III, Karachi.

It is contended by learned counsel appearing for the petitioner that the petitioner wishes to surrender himself before the learned trial Court and in the meanwhile he may be permitted to travel to Pakistan in order to surrender himself before the learned trial Court. He has further contended that the CNIC of the petitioner is blocked pursuant to the above noted complaint making him unable to get his passport renewed for the said travel.

Learned D.A.G has affected appearance and stated that he has no cavil to the protective/transitory bail being granted to the petitioner and also has no cavil if the CNIC of the petitioner is temporarily unblocked in order for him to renew his passport and travel to Pakistan.

We have heard both the parties. In the light of submissions of the respective parties noted above, the protective/transitory bail is granted to the petitioner till 3rd

December, 2026 subject to his furnishing solvent surety in the sum of Rs.100,000/- (Rupees One Hundred Thousand) and P.R Bond in the like amount to the satisfaction of the Additional Registrar of this Court. In the meanwhile, the respondents are directed to unblock the CNIC of petitioner, enabling him to travel.

Petition stands disposed of in the above terms along with listed application.
