ADNAN-UL-KARIM MEMON J:- Through the instant petition, the petitioner seeks release of his remaining pensionary dues, including pension difference and other admissible retirement benefits, along with costs and any other appropriate relief.

2. The petitioner, who served as Sanitary Worker (BPS-02) in Town Municipal Corporation, Hussainabad, Hyderabad, retired from service on 01.11.2025. He has filed the instant Constitution Petition seeking release of his pensionary and other retirement benefits, alleging that despite repeated applications and personal visits, the respondents failed to settle his dues without assigning any lawful reason.

3. The case of the petitioner is that he rendered his services diligently and is legally entitled to pensionary benefits, but the respondents' failure to release the same amounts to a violation of his constitutional rights under Articles 4 and 25 of the Constitution. The learned counsel for the petitioner also relies upon the judgment reported as PLD 2007 SC 35, regarding expeditious settlement of pensionary claims.

4. In response, the Senior Accounts Officer, HMC, submitted that an amount of Rs.771,706/- towards the proportionate share of commutation/gratuity payable by HMC has been credited to the petitioner's bank account vide Cheque

No.59703362 dated 01.10.2026. HMC has undertaken to comply with the directions of this Court.

5. In view of the statement made by the Senior Accounts Officer, HMC, regarding payment of Rs.771,706/- towards the proportionate share of commutation/gratuity, the said statement is taken on record. However, the respondents are directed to ensure settlement and release of the petitioner's legal remaining admissible pensionary benefits, including pension difference, if any, strictly in accordance with the applicable rules, within a period of two (02) months. The concerned authority shall also communicate the status of the remaining dues to the petitioner.

6. With the above directions, the instant petition stands disposed of, along with pending applications, if any.
