Mr. Khalid Mehmood Rajpar, advocate for the applicant

Learned counsel states that while numerous questions of law are pleaded for determination, the impugned judgment is prima facie perfunctory in nature as there is no independent discussion and deliberation of the respective facts and circumstances of two appeals jointly decided. Learned counsel states that notwithstanding the foregoing the impugned judgment has been rendered by the learned Single Member Bench in prima facie violation of the statutory pecuniary jurisdiction, therefore, on that count alone the impugned judgment merits being set-aside. Under such circumstances, learned counsel states that it may be just and proper for the impugned judgment to be set aside and the matter be remanded back to the learned Tribunal for adjudication afresh in accordance with law by a Division Bench thereof. Order accordingly.

A copy of this decision may be sent under seal of this Court and the signature of the Registrar to the learned Customs Appellate Tribunal, as required per section 196(10) of the Customs Act, 1969. Office is instructed to place copy of this order in connected matter.
