ADNAN-UL-KARIM MEMON J: The petitioner, Ashfaque Ahmed, has filed this Constitutional Petition alleging harassment, unlawful curtailment of his contractual service and withholding of salary and other service-related dues.

2. The learned counsel submits that the petitioner's contractual period was curtailed without justification, despite his reinstatement vide office order dated 23.05.2025. He further submits that his representation against termination is pending and submits that he would be satisfied if directions are issued to the respondents for decision on the said representation through a speaking order, after affording him an opportunity of hearing, within two weeks. Learned Additional A.G extended no objection to the proposition put forwarded by the petitioner.

3. In view of the above, this petition is disposed of with directions to the competent authority of the respondents to decide the representation of the petitioner through a speaking order in accordance with law after affording the petitioner an opportunity of hearing within two weeks. The issue of outstanding salary shall also be decided in accordance with law within the same period.
