5. FOR HEARING OF MAIN CASE

05.10.2026

Mr. Malik Khushhal, advocate for petitioners
Mr. M. Akram Tariq, advocate for respondents
Ms. Wajiha Mehdi, DAG

Urgency granted.

Learned counsel for petitioner submits that the petitioner is residing in the subject property having acquired the same through registered conveyance deed after obtaining approval, they raised construction of ground+three floors from the relevant authority, however, recently Evacuee Trust Board, issued notice to petitioners with an allegation that the subject property is an evacuee property, therefore, petitioners are required to vacate the same. This Court vide order dated 24.5.2023, issued notice to respondents and in the meanwhile, it was ordered that respondents shall not take any coercive action against the petitioners including their vacation from the subject property pursuant to the impugned judgment and order passed by the Chairman, Evacuee Trust Board. Learned counsel pointed out that during the pendency of petition, the respondents have sealed the subject property in violation of the court order, therefore, the petitioner has filed contempt application under Section 3 read with Section 5(1) of the Contempt of Court Ordinance, 2003 read with Section 151 CPC.

Let notice be issued to the alleged contemnor as to why action in terms of Section 17(2) of the Contempt of Court Ordinance shall not be taken against the respondents by violating the order of this Court, thereby, they were restrained not to take any adverse action against the petitioners including vacation from the subject property pursuant to the impugned notice, not to have sealed the property, the sealing order is available at page 19 of the memo of contempt application. To come up after two weeks. In the meanwhile, the subject property be de-sealed forthwith.
